Message Throwing Intermediate Event

Description

A Message Throwing Intermediate Event is used to send a message.

This Event displays any of the following on a diagram:

- A Message Throwing Intermediate Event name if the name is specified.
- A Message Ref property value if the name is unspecified.
- An Operation Ref property if the name and Message Ref are not specified.

Notation

Related element

- Intermediate Throwing Event

Related diagrams

- BPMN Process Diagram
- BPMN Collaboration Diagram

Related procedure

- Creating and Using an Event