Security Control Action

Description

A call of a Security Control in the context of another Security Control. It is used to show how a set of Security Controls can be used to protect an asset in a particular context.

Architecture Framework

UAF

Extension

UML Call Behavior Action