

Assessment Concept Relationships

Description

The following table provides the relationships that exist between element types and their meaning.

Relationship	Description	Example
Identifies	This link connects Assessment to a Potential Reward or Risk . Meaning that the Assessment points out some possible Potential Reward or Risk that is /are significant to that Assessment. Each possible consequence serves as an appraisal of the worth, value, or quality of some aspect of the Assessment in specific terms, types, or dimensions.	 <pre> graph TD A["«Assessment» Improved management of information about provided services"] -- «Identifies» --> B["«Potential Reward» Reduction of administration costs by 10%"] </pre>
Provides Impetus	This link connects Assessment to a Business Policy or Business Rule . Meaning that the Assessment is the driving force for the Business Policy or Business Rule.	 <pre> graph BT A["«Assessment» Improved management of information about provided services"] -- «Provides Impetus» --> B["«Business Rule» New training offer within 6 months"] </pre>
Affects Achievements	This link connects Assessment to a Vision , Goal , or Objective . Meaning that the Assessment has an impact on the End outcomes.	 <pre> graph BT A["«Assessment» Improved management of information about provided services"] -- «Affects Achievement» --> B["«Goal» To improve customer satisfaction (over the next 5 years)"] </pre>
Affects Employment	This link connects Assessment to a Mission , Strategy , Tactic , Business Policy or Business Rule . Meaning that the Assessment has an impact on the use of Means.	 <pre> graph BT A["«Assessment» Improved management of information about provided services"] -- «Affects Employment» --> B["«Mission» Provide consulting and training services to companies in Europe"] </pre>

Judgement For	This link connects Assessment to a Influencer (External Influencer or Internal Influencer). Meaning that the Assessment is the Influencer's judgment that influences the organization's ability to carry out its Means or achieve its Ends.	 <pre>graph BT; A["«Assessment» Improved management of information about provided services"] -- "«Is Judgment Of»" --> I["«Internal Influencer» Online consultation ordering system was made for reserving consultations"]</pre>
---------------	--	--

Related element

- Assessment Concepts

Related diagram

- Business Motivation Diagram