Functional Requirement

A Functional Requirement is a requirement that specifies a behavior that a system or a part of a system must perform.

Related diagrams

- Requirement DiagramRequirement Table