External System

An External System is a system that interacts with the system under development.

Example

- Information server.Monitoring system.

Related diagrams

• SysML Use Case Diagram