Adding hyperlinks to model elements

Cameo Collaborator for Teamwork Cloud supports cross-references to model elements in all string-type values. You can represent links as element names, representation text, or custom text. In addition, you can choose whether links are updated when element names change.