

S2 Service Structure

Description

The S2 Viewpoint identifies and specifies how services are structured to create higher-aggregated services. To provide higher-level views, nodes, resources, service interfaces, and service functions can be represented.

Implementation

The S2 view can be represented using the S2 Service Structure diagram.