

S2 Service Structure

Description

The S2 Viewpoint identifies and specifies how services are structured to create higher-aggregated services. To provide high-level views, dependencies to other services, nodes, and resources, as well as service interfaces and service functions can be represented.

Implementation

The S2 view can be represented using the S2 Service Structure diagram.

Sample

An example of the S2 Services Structure diagram.