

Keystore parameters

The following parameters are required by the authentication server to sign the authentication token.

Parameter	Required	Description	Default value authentication.server.key-store	yes	The path to a keystore file in the file system. It can be relative to the Web Application Platform directory or absolute.	./conf/keystore.p12 authentication.server.key-store-type	yes	A keystore type. The available types are JKS and PKCS12 .	PKCS12 authentication.server.key-store-password	no	A keystore password (required if the keystore is password-protected). It should be changed for a production environment.	nomagic authentication.server.key-password	no	A private key password (required if the private key is password-protected). It should be changed for a production environment.	nomagic authentication.server.key-alias	yes	A private key alias used to identify a key in the keystore.	webapp