Cancel End Event

Description

A Cancel End Event is used within a Transaction SubProcess. It indicates that the transaction will be canceled and a Cancel Boundary Event attached to the SubProcess boundary will be triggered. It also indicates that a Transaction Protocol Cancel message have to be sent to all entities involved in the transaction.

Notation

Related element

- End Events

Related diagrams

- BPMN Process Diagram
- BPMN Collaboration Diagram

Related procedure

- Creating and Using an Event