Performance Requirement

A Performance Requirement refers to a requirement that quantitatively measures the extent to which a system or a system part satisfy a required capability or condition.

Related diagrams

- Requirement Diagram
- Requirement Table