Change Structural Feature Event

A Change Structural Feature Event is an event which is used to model changes in values of structural features.

Related page

- Change Event

Related diagrams

- SysML Activity Diagram