

SubConversation

Description

A SubConversation is a conversation node considered as a hierarchical division within a parent's conversation.

A SubConversation is represented as a graphical object within a BPMN Conversation diagram, but it can also be opened up to show a lower-level conversation, which consists of message flows, communications, and/or other SubConversations. A SubConversation shares the participants of its parent conversation.

Notation

Related elements

- Pool and Lane
- Conversation Link
- Conversation

Related diagrams

- BPMN Collaboration Diagram
- BPMN Process Diagram

Related procedure

- Creating and Using Conversation Nodes