

Assessment Concept Relationships

Description

The following table provides the relationships that exist between element types and their meaning.

Relationship	Description	Example
Identifies	This link connects Assessment to a Potential Reward or Risk . Meaning that the Assessment points out some possible Potential Reward or Risk that is/are significant to that Assessment. Each possible consequence serves as an appraisal of the worth, value, or quality of some aspect of the Assessment in specific terms, types, or dimensions.
Provides Impetus	This link connects Assessment to a Business Policy or Business Rule . Meaning that the Assessment is the driving force for the Business Policy or Business Rule.
Affects Achievements	This link connects Assessment to a Vision , Goal , or Objective . Meaning that the Assessment has an impact on the End outcomes.
Affects Employment	This link connects Assessment to a Mission , Strategy , Tactic , Business Policy or Business Rule . Meaning that the Assessment has an impact on the use of Means.

Related element

- Assessment Concepts

Related diagram

- Business Motivation Diagram

Judgement For	This link connects Assessment to a Influencer (External Influencer or Internal Influencer). Meaning that the Assessment is the Influencer's judgment that influences the organization's ability to carry out its Means or achieve its Ends.	<pre> graph BT     A["«Internal Influencer» Online consultation ordering system was made for reserving consultations"]     B["«Assessment» Improved management of information about provided services"]     B -- "«Is Judgment Of»" --&gt; A </pre>
---------------	--	---