

Personnel Parameters

Description

The Personnel Parameters (Pe-Pm) domain depicts the measurements of resources.

The intended usage of the The Personnel Parameters (Pe-Pm) domain includes:

- Definition of performance characteristics and measurements.
- Identification of non-functional requirements.

Implementation

The Personnel Parameters (Pe-Pm) domain is represented by:

- Environment diagram.
- Typical Measurements table.
- Actual Measurements table.
- Personnel Parametric diagram.
- Actual Measurements (.xlsx).

Related elements

- Actual Measurement
- Actual Measurement Set
- Actual Property Set
- Capability Configuration
- Competence
- Measurement
- Measurement Set
- Organization
- Post
- Property Set
- Resource Artifact
- Software

Related procedures

 Unknown macro: 'list-children'