Question dialog

The Question dialog opens when converting a model to another Enterprise Architecture Framework.

The dialog asks whether user wants to convert the model according to specified options or not.

Question
Active project will be converted to DoDAF 2.0 project in accordance with the following conversion settings: Convert diagram types Convert template structure
Are you sure you want to convert the project?
NOTE! Used read-only projects will not be converted.
Do not show this message again
Yes No Help

Check box	Description
Convert diagram types	Select to convert all diagram types to corresponding diagram types in the selected framework.
Convert template structure	Select to convert the template structure to the template structure in the selected framework.
Do not show this message again	Select to hide the dialog the next time when performing the model conversion.
	Sestore the usage of the Question dialog

Related procedures

1. Click Options > Environment.

2. In the Environment Options dialog select the UAF options group.

Converting model between Enterprise Architecture Frameworks
3. In the General properties, set the Display project conversion confirmation question property value to true.