User System

An User System is a special external system that serves as medium between a user and the system without having its own interests in the communication.

> ✓ Example
>
> - Input Device or Display.

Related diagrams
• SysML Use Case Diagram