

External System

An External System is a system that interacts with the system under development.

Example

- Information server.
- Monitoring system.

Related diagrams

- SysML Use Case Diagram