OSLC tutorial

Cameo DataHub has the ability to use OSLC data from any OSLC-compliant Provider. It is now possible to establish hyperlinks between model elements and elements provided by an OSLC Provider, as well as having OSLC previews of remote elements from within a modeling tool environment.

The steps for establishing links between model elements and OSLC resources are shown below:

Steps to establish links between model elements and OSLC resources.

In the following pages, you will find step-by-step descriptions for linking model elements with OSLC resources.
