Working with the natural language glossary

A big capability of the modeling tool is generating natural language glossaries for your concept modeling project. This section explains how to generate a natural language glossary and how to customize to your liking.

Related Pages

Unknown macro: 'list-children'