Compensation End Event

Description

A Compensation End Event indicates that a compensation is necessary.

- If an Activity, which has successfully been completed, is identified, that Activity will be compensated.
- If no Activity is identified, all successfully completed Activities visible from the Compensation End Event will be compensated in reverse order of their sequence flows.

To be compensated, an Activity must have a Compensation Boundary Event or contain a Compensation Event SubProcess.

Notation

Related elements

- End Events
- Compensation

Related diagrams

- BPMN Process Diagram
- BPMN Collaboration Diagram

Related procedure

- Creating and Using an Event