Items and Data

The traditional requirement of process modeling is to be able to model the items (physical or information items) that are created, manipulated, and used during the execution of a process. This requirement is fulfilled in BPMN through various constructs: Data Objects, Item Definition, Properties, Data Inputs, Data Outputs, Messages, Input Sets, Output Sets, and Data Associations.

Related elements

- Data Object
- Data Store
- Data Input and Data Output
- Data Association