

Initializing opposite association end

If two stereotypes are connected with an Association and there are roles at both ends, the role at one end will be automatically initialized when the opposite role is specified.

Example:

When «dog» Rex is set as a pet for «human» Tom, Tom will be automatically set as “main” for Rex:

Related pages

- Stereotype
- Association
- Association End