DataHub tree

DataHub tree is composed of nodes, each of which represents either a node or a connected Data Source. Data in the DataHub tree are arranged hierarchically in a tree structure. It represents all the data that DataHub contains at that time.

The DataHub tree.

Related pages

- Data Source synchronization
- Displaying MagicDraw Data Sources
- Removing a Data Source