Excel Import Plugin

Introduction

Excel Import is a data bridge that imports data from a file to create a class and automatic create instance specification(s), and export a class and its instance specification(s) to a file.