

Checking a visited State

You can check whether a specified State was visited by calling the following command

```
boolean wasInState(String stateName)
```

The following code fragment shows how to check whether a specified State of State Machine, e.g., State1, was visited through ALH API.

```
ALH.wasInState("State1");           // Returns true or false.
```