End Events

An End Event indicates where the path of a process ends. In terms of sequence flows, an End Event ends the flow of a process, and thus, does not have any outgoing sequence flow.

Types of End Events used in business process modeling are the following:

- None End Event
 Message End Event
 Error End Event
- Escalation End Event
- Cancel End Event
- Compensation End Event

- Signal End Event
 Terminate End Event
 Multiple End Event