Assessment Concept Relationships

Description

The following table provides the relationships that exist between element types and their meaning.

Relationship	Description	Example
Identifies	This link connects Assessment to a Potential Reward or Risk. Meaning that the Assessment points out some possible Potential Reward or Risk that is /are significant to that Assessment. Each possible consequence serves as an appraisal of the worth, value, or quality of some aspect of the Assessment in specific terms, types, or dimensions.	«Assessment»  Improved management of information about provided services  wild a services  «Potential Reward»  Reduction of administration costs by 10%
Provides Impetus	This link connects Assessment to a Business Policy or Business Rule.  Meaning that the Assessment is the driving force for the Business Policy or Business Rule.	«Business Rule» New training offer within 6 months  «Provides Impetus»  «Assessment» Improved management of information about provided services
Affects Achievements	This link connects Assessment to a Vision, Goal, or Objective. Meaning that the Assessment has an impact on the End outcomes.	«Goal»  To improve customer satisfaction (over the next 5 years)  «Affects Achievement»  «Assessment»  Improved management of information about provided services
Affects Employment	This link connects Assessment to a Mission, Strategy, Tactic, Business Policy or Business Rule. Meaning that the Assessment has an impact on the use of Means.	«Mission»  Provide consulting and training services to companies in Europe  «Affects Employment»  «Assessment»  Improved management of information about provided services

Related element

Assessment Concepts

Related diagram

• Business Motivation Diagram