Archived Users Profile

Use our reminder service - enter your email and click the Send password button. New password will be generated and sent by email.
Login to our website with your username and password, click on Edit Personal Information right-side menu selection and edit your details.
Yes, it is. Even having the username/password, the intruder won't be able to access the credit card information since we don't keep any credit card data in the database. Shopping cart works via HTTPS, therefore, it is impossible to sniff any data.