Generating reports from the command line

To generate reports and schedule report printing, type the command in the terminal. This feature allows you to generate reports without opening the MagicDraw application and using Report Wizard.

Related pages

- Using the Generate command to generate reports
- Generating a report from Teamwork Cloud Server
- Properties filename
- Uploading generated reports to servers
- Syntax rules