

Change Structural Feature Event

A Change Structural Feature Event is an Event that occurs when a value of a specified Structural Feature on the Event changes. The Change Structural Feature Event will be accepted by an Accept Change Structural Feature Event action. You can find more information about simulation of an Accept Change Structural Feature Event Action and a Change Structural Feature Event in Accept change structural feature Event action.