Actuator

An Actuator is a special external system that influences the environment of the system under development.

> Example
> - Heater assembly.
> - Central locking system of a car.

Related diagrams
• SysML Use Case Diagram