Composition

Description

A Composition is a key relationship that shows how organization structure is composed. For example, one organization unit can be a part of a parent organization.

Example

Related elements

- Resource
- Organization Unit
- Role
- Person
- Information system

Related diagrams

Organization Structure Diagram

Related Procedure

• Using Organization Structure Diagram