Interaction Overview diagram

An Interaction Overview diagram is a type of Interaction diagram, which falls under the behavioral diagramming family. The Interaction Overview diagram focuses on the flow of control between Interactions. It is based on Activity diagram notation. Interactions in the Interaction Overview diagram are represented using the Interaction Use element.

All elements except the Interaction Use of the Interaction Overview diagram are the same as in the Activity diagram.

Related pages

- Creating diagrams