Determining the Host ID

On this page

- Determine host ID using GUI
- Determine Host ID when working with the no GUI Teamwork Server

Determine host ID using GUI

To determine the Host ID of the machine on which the Teamwork Server is installed

- 1. Start the Teamwork Server.
- 2. When the License Manager dialog opens, copy the text from the Host ID box.

hose of multiple network adapters, the Host ID is encrypted.

🔀 Teamwork Server 19.0 License Manager	-		×
License Manager In this dialog, you can select license key files, or determine the Host ID.
In order to download a license key file locked to a particular mach following: 1. Copy the Host ID that is shown in this message. 2. Login to the license owner's account at http://www.nomagic. select the License Activation Management menu item on the right page. 3. Create a new offline activation record according to the instru 4. Choose to either Download or Send the license key file from to 5. Apply the license key to this application. Host ID:	com a t side o uctions the reo	lease do th nd of the main provided. cord you cre	e eate.
Select License Key Files Select the Teamwork Server 19.0 license key files. Select	ect Lice	ense Key Fi	les bonot close the dialog boxes. You will return to add the activated license key (see Adding the license to Teamwork Server).
Cancel

Determine Host ID when working with the no GUI Teamwork Server

Running the teamwork_server_nogui for the first time, you get this window:

Please use the host id printed on your screen.

Related pages

- Activating a license
- Adding the license to Teamwork Server
- Activating the Teamwork Server commercial license