

Strategic Information St-If

Description

The Strategic Information (St-If) view addresses information that can be considered to be an enterprise strategic asset that can influence the achievement of enterprise goals. It identifies and defines those strategic information elements and their relationships that are applicable to the architecture.

Implementation

The Strategic Information (St-If) is represented by the Strategic Information diagram.

Related procedures

- Working with Strategic Information diagram